Washington.

Washington, Dec. 9.—Members of Congress are already overwhelmed with letters and personal applications from parties who wish to be nominated to the Department for positions in the army, a recent order having been issued for the filling of vacancies in the regular service by an equal appointment among the States, one first or one second Lieutenant to be appointed from ment among the States, one first or one second Lieutenant to be appointed from each Congressional District.

The Supreme Court of the United States now has before it the following case: The United States, plaintiff, in error, w. S. M. Wiley. It involves this question: does the President's pardon remit the sentence of forfeiture of rebel property, and reinstate the rebel in all his rights thereto. This was a motion of S. M. Wiley, defendant, in error, and appellee, to dismiss the writ of error, and appellee, to dismiss the writ of error, and appelle of the United States, on the ground that the President's pardon and the acceptation and compliance with the terms thereof by the defendant, discharged and remitted the forfeiture for which sentence of condemnation was pronounced in the district court, by pardoning the acts by which alone, for which sentence of condemnation was pronounced in the district court, by pardoning the acts by which alone, if at all, their forfeiture was incurred. The cause originated in an information filed in the District Court of the United States for the Southern district thereof and on charges, Gould named as the informer, under the acts of Congress of 1861 and 1862, commonly known as the confiscation acts for the confiscation of and forfeiture of 1756 shares of the application of 1756 shares of the confiscation acts for the confiscation of on the confiscation of 1756 shares of the confiscation of 1756 shares of the application, as the property of the defendant in the two fold fraud alleged in the information, first of alleged use of the property by Mr. Wiley in aid of the robellion, under the act of 1881, and second, alleged treasonable acts of Mr. Wiley under the act of 1882. The motion to dismiss this cause was announced by Mr. Laraqur, in its support.

It is understood that the constitutionality of the act of Congress prescribing the test oath is now before the Supreme Court. On the application of A. H. Garland, of Arkansas, the whole question will be presented on Friday next. The only pardons granted to-day were those to a few Texans. The State Department is still besieged, however, by those who have heretofore received the Executive clemency and who are now over anxious to receive their respective papers.

There were quite a crowd of visitors at the White House to-day, including several members of Congress.

The Representatives from Ohio and Kentucky were among those who were admitted to an interview with the President.

Dr. Mehoffy, reading clerk of the House of Representatives, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is gradually recovering.

The Southern members elect to Congress are still here, but some of them believing that it will be a long time before they are admitted, contemplate returning home and remaining there until the door is opened to receive them.

Revision of the Cavalry Service.

New York, Dec. 10.—The Herald's Washington special says:
Gen. Price, of the Cavalry Bureau, has submitted a proposition for the revision the Cavalry arm of the service, which has received the approval of many prominent general officers. The plan contemplates that no soldier shall be permanently mustered until he has received a year's instruction and proved himself capable of taking care of a horse; that one third of the force, consisting of the recruiting Regiments, shall be kept dismounted, with only a sufficient number of horses for instruction in equestrian; that the Regiments shall rotate in being dismounted; that after a Regiment has been thoroughly instructed mountal.

shall be kept dismounted, with only a sufficient number of horses for instruction in equestrian; that the Regiments shall rotate in being dismounted; that after a Regiment has been thoroughly instructed, mounted and sent to the field, it shall not receive any recruits until recalled to the place of rendxvous. By this means there will be no troops in the field but the most efficient.
